

The Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE)

The Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE) administers their exams with either paper format or computer-based delivery. The AFCPE web site is <http://www.afcpe.org/>.

DANTES TCOs may administer the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE) exams in paper format only. AFCPE offers certification as an Accredited Financial Counselor. The financial counselor who has certified skills can assist individuals and families in the process of financial decision-making. The AFC Program has two courses, please refer to:

http://www.afcpe.org/pages/page.cfm?page_id=92&top_id=20/. AFCPE also offers certification as a Certified Housing Counselor. A Certified Housing Counselor can objectively assess the client's current financial situation, identifies problem areas the client may face, recommends appropriate actions to help clients obtain and maintain adequate housing, and evaluates the housing and financial status of low, moderate and middle-income families. The CHC program has three courses, please refer to: http://www.afcpe.org/pages/page.cfm?page_id=70&top_id=20/.
