

COLLEGE & CAREER READINESS EXAMS

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Department of Defense (DoD) Voluntary Education (VoEd) Program, through the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES), provides access to various exam programs that help military members further their college and career readiness goals, by taking the following reimbursable exams:

- ✓ ACT® and SAT®: validates a member's readiness for college, career and advancement potential
- ✓ GED: provides nationally-recognized high school equivalency credentials, post-secondary and career opportunities
- ✓ GRE®: helps members pursue graduate school programs and Service-specific advancement
- ✓ GMAT®: validates a member's readiness for graduate-level business school and Service-specific programs
- ✓ PRAXIS: assesses a member's skills and knowledge of teaching fundamentals

STUDENT BENEFITS:

- 🏠 Helps assess and improve academic and career readiness
- 🏠 Strengthens qualifications for Service-specific advancement and officer accession programs
- 🏠 Helps increase readiness when transitioning from the military to college and /or a civilian career
- 🏠 Offers the opportunity to meet higher-education goals and succeed in military/civilian careers
- 🏠 Saves money with DANTES reimbursement of test fees

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

All active duty, National Guard and Reserve component service members, in all military Services, including the U.S. Coast Guard are eligible to take DANTES-reimbursed college and career readiness Exams. Each exam may be taken once per lifetime of service.*

*ACT and SAT Exams: Eligible service members may take and be reimbursed for up to two ACT and two SAT exams, taken at test centers located nationally and internationally.
